Dear Friends:

France is called the “Eldest Daughter of the Church,” and when you see how the Catholic Faith is honored in history, art, architecture, and her Saints, you’ll understand why!

Our pilgrimage will focus on Paris and northern France. We will visit the beach of Normandy for a moving reminder of the cost of freedom. We travel to Mont-Saint-Michel, an amazing town that seems like a fairytale land! I am excited to see the sites of St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Joan of Arc, St. Catherine Laboure and the church where she received the Miraculous Medal, and nearby St. Vincent de Paul. In Paris we will see the Louvre Museum, Chartres and Notre Dame, Montmartre, Sainte Chapel, and have lots of free time to look around!

I am looking forward to being your Chaplain on this pilgrimage of Faith! Please join me!

DAY 3  Wednesday, April 23: Lisieux | Normandy Landing Beaches
Breakfast at our hotel. Begin our day with a visit to “Les Buissonnets,” the home where Thérèse Martin spent eleven years of her life until she joined the Carmelites Convent. Continue to the Carmelite Convent of Lisieux. When Thérèse Martin entered, on April 9, 1888, there were 26 sisters. They prayed together for six and a half hours every day, two hours of which were spent in contemplative prayer.

Join the Benedictine Abbey fortress that crowns this mass of granite began in 1017. A Michel is one of the most enchanting sights in all of France. Building of the great Cathedral in Chartres.

We'll have a guided visit of the basilica including the crypt, covered entirely in marble and mosaic. The art expresses St. Thérèse’s spiritual life, her deep faith in the love of God, and her desire to answer it in full. After our visit, we’ll continue to Normandy Landing Beaches and stop at Omaha Beach, the most famous of the Normandy landing beaches. On June 6, 1944 tens of thousands of American, English, Canadian, Scottish, and French soldiers landed on the beaches of the Normandy coast to free France from the Nazi stronghold. Thousands of young soldiers died that first day in the name of liberty. The coast of Normandy still has the indelible scars of that event. Independent lunch.

We'll continue to visit Saint-Mère-Eglise Church. The most humbling is the stained-glass window that has 2 American Paratroopers descending during D-Day. Continue to visit Sainte-Ferreol Church of Caucourny. The hamlet of Caucourny witnessed heavy fighting from the June 6-9 1944, between paratroopers of the 82nd Airborne Division and grenadiers of the 91st German Infantry Division. Continue to visit the American Cemetery at Colleville-sur-Mer. Time will be given for prayer and reflection.

Visit the fascinating Artist Square and Sacré Coeur Basilica de Montmartre (Sacred Heart of Montmartre), located at the summit of the hill of Montmartre on the right bank of the Seine. In 1870, war broke out between France and Germany, and France was invaded. The idea took hold that the ordeals incurred by France were due to its spiritual faults as well as its political ones. This gave birth to the construction of a basilica dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. French Christians pledged to maintain perpetual prayer in exchange for the protection of Paris. In 1872, the archbishop of Paris approved the project and chose the hill of Montmartre for the site. Celebrate Mass at Sacré Coeur Basilica.

Group farewell dinner at a restaurant in Paris, followed by an evening cruise on the Seine River. See 1,000 years of history while passing 25 bridges and the main illuminated monuments of Paris! Overnight at our hotel in Paris. (B,D)

DAY 5  Friday, April 25: Rouen | Paris
Breakfast at our hotel. This morning, we’ll leave for Rouen, the port city of Paris at the mouth of the Seine River on the English Channel (1.5-hour drive). Rouen is filled with lovely churches, old half-timbered houses, and poignant reminders of Joan of Arc, who was burned alive here on May 30, 1431. Visit St. Joan of Arc Church in Rouen. A dazzling modern church and memorial dedicated to St. Joan of Arc, Franciscans. Continue to Rouen Cathedral, an imposing sample of Gothic architecture. The first cathedral was built in 396 by Bishop Victicius. This was destroyed by the invading Normans, who replaced it with a larger cathedral with a wooden vault. Consecrated in 1063 in the presence of William the Conqueror, all that remains of this building is the crypt beneath the choir. Notre Dame in Rouen was often chosen by the French Impressionist painter, Monet, as the facade building in many of his paintings. Rouen Cathedral boasts a strong musical tradition since the Middle Ages. Its choir was famous up to the French Revolution for singing from memory. Celebrate Mass at Rouen Cathedral. Independent lunch with free time to enjoy the old town.

Late afternoon, we’ll continue to Paris, the “City of Light.” Dinner and overnight at our hotel in Paris. (B,D)

DAY 6  Saturday, April 26: Pilgrim Churches of Paris | Free Afternoon
Breakfast at our hotel. Begin our day with a visit to the Rue de Bac, Shrine of the Miraculous Medal. Celebrate Mass at the Shrine. This is where our Blessed Mother appeared to St. Catherine Labouré in 1830. Continue to the nearby Shrine of St. Vincent DePaul, where his saintly remains are preserved and venerated. Next, we’ll go to l’ile de la Cité, where we will see the exterior of the magnificent cathedral, Notre-Dame-de-Paris. Its massive flying buttresses, famous towers, and elegant rose windows will take your breath away. Continue to visit the nearby Sainte Chapelle, a masterpiece of Flamboyant Gothic architecture built by Saint Louis in the heart of the Palais de la Cité. Discover its unique stained-glass windows rendering the air iridescent with light and color, symbols of the Heavenly Jerusalem. Independent lunch.

Free afternoon to enjoy Paris on your own. Perhaps you would like to visit the Musee d’Orsay, Moulin Rouge, Palace of Versailles, or Jardin du Luxembourg. Independent dinner. Overnight at our hotel in Paris. (B)

DAY 7  Sunday, April 27: Louvre Museum | Chartres
Breakfast at our hotel. This morning, we’ll visit the world-famous Louvre Museum, which boasts nearly 60,000 square meters of exhibition space to house its vast collection. The Louvre showcases artifacts, sculptures, paintings, and drawings representing eleven millennia of history. In the sculpture wing, we will see the famed Venus de Milo and Winged Victory of Samothrace. The many galleries of paintings include works from noted masters, such as Rembrandt, Rubens, Raphael, Titian, and others, as well as da Vinci’s Mona Lisa. Independent lunch. This afternoon we’ll visit Chartres and Notre Dame Cathedral. Chartres Cathedral boasts an unrivaled expanse of sculpture, as well as one of Europe’s most impressive collections of stained-glass windows. The Cathedral of Our Lady of Chartres also houses the Sancta Carnisia, a tunic that according to tradition belonged to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Celebrate Mass at the Notre Dame Cathedral in Chartres.

Dinner and overnight at our hotel in Paris. (B)

DAY 8  Monday, April 28: Medieval Paris & Montmartre | Seine River Cruise
breakfast at our hotel. This morning we’ll experience the remarkable sights of this magnificent and romantic city on the River Seine: the Eiffel Tower, Champs Elysées, Arc de Triomphe, Tomb of Napoleon, Place de la Concorde, the Opéra, the Bastille Square, and the Place des Vosges, the oldest square in Paris. Continue to Montmartre for an independent lunch.

Visit the fascinating Artist Square and Sacré Coeur Basilica de Montmartre (Sacred Heart of Montmartre), located at the summit of the hill of Montmartre on the right bank of the Seine. In 1870, war broke out between France and Germany, and France was invaded. The idea took hold that the ordeals incurred by France were due to its spiritual faults as well as its political ones.
